Curriculum

There is a clear need for continuing education to remain competitive in today's job market. New skills are critical for success and employees will need more than high school diplomas. This leaves a gap that must be filled by continuing education.

Choose ten training briefs from the seventy-five we have in our portfolio and define the title you would like to appear on your certificate. It is as simple as that!

Program Objectives:

- ◆ This program will address the specific needs as identified by the participant.
- ◆ The program requires a minimum of ten of our training briefs.
- ◆ The participant must pass a final examination in order to be certified.

Program Overview

Each situation is unique. We recognize that you have special requirements for your training and skills development. To address your specific needs we have created this custom certification. Participants must demonstrate that they have actually achieved learning objectives before they complete this program. With a custom certification course, you can define specific criteria for success and measure your performance. You select ten of our training briefs that are related to your specific situation, you define the title of the certification and once you complete the program we issue you a custom certificate. You get to learn new skills that are directly related to your specific needs and you also feel more confident, which leads to feeling more secure and optimistic about opportunities for job advancement.

You've asked for the ability to design a course around your specific needs. We've heard you loud and clear. We apply our instructional design skills to your unique situation and custom certification solutions that achieve true performance improvement. This custom certification is built on ten of our seventy-five training briefs that are directly related to the subject matter represented in the certification title of your choice. Note: Spy-Ops reserves the right to reject titles that misrepresent the content of the program.

FACT: Currently, 93 percent of employers provide professional development opportunities/reimbursement for their employees. Check with your employer to see if they will cover the cost of your program.

This program consists of 10 modules, which you select, that each take approximately 1 1/2 hours to complete. This unique program sells for $129.95 and can be ordered via the Spy-Ops web-site, delivered via CD or an email that contains all necessary materials in Adobe Acrobat format (PDF). Once completed, the participant takes a comprehensive exam and submits it for scoring. If successful they receive a Certificate with the title that you selected. The tangible benefits of continuing professional education include career advancement, professional recognition, personal safety, job security and the list goes on. Additionally, our product offering includes seventy-five individual briefs to support the specific interests of our customers. We will also create custom training briefs and on-site programs upon request.

FACT: The work environment is undergoing constant change. New threats, specialization of job profiles, technical complexities for jobs, and increased work pressure are now major aspects of the work environment that require individuals to update their skills regularly.

A certification specifically designed to meet your needs.
